★ SOCIETY

SOCIETY@THE-STAR.CO.KE

GENDER MAINSTREAMING FETE IS BACK

The Gender Mainstreaming Awards returned on Friday for its 12th event across Africa, celebrating corporates and individuals who are contributing to this development.

Business Engage regional director Margaret Kimani hosted a cocktail at the Trademark Hotel, which marked the official launch of the awards in East Africa ahead of the gala event in Nairobi on November 8.

Those in attendance included AVPA regional director Nasri Adams, USIU executive director Dashanaba King and Nairobi Securities Exchange chief legal officer Kuria Waithaka.

1

2

3

4

5

6

1. Emcee Angela Wambui and former Machakos executive Stephen Kilonzo 2. GMA 2023 Positive Role Model recipient Eng Sally Musonye 3. Bamburi Cement head of procurement Baldwin Onyango and Women In Safety Excellence secretary general Monicah Kimeu 4. Dashanaba King 5. Panelists cut the cake to mark the offficial launch 6. In-Trade CEO Jacinta Kiruthi and Nasri Adams /MOSES MWANGI

(+) WINE LOVERS UNBOX THEIR FAVOURITE FLAVOURS IN STYLE

Influencers and wine enthusiasts on Friday attended the 'Unbox the Flavour' event at DNM Park, Garden estate Nairobi.

Tapping into the Kenya's growing wine market, it showcase wine brands' versatility in pairings with different meals.

In attendance were KWAL head of marketing Senorine Wasike, commercial director Jonas Greates and brand manager Mukami Muriti. Saxophonist Rabai and his band entertained guests.

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

1. Chefs pair wine with meat barbeques 2. Rabai entertains guests 3. Zedrick Bruce and Brenda Nyaboke in African brands 4. Wine enthusiast Celine Mumbi 5. Senorine Wasike, Jonas Greates and Mukami Muriti 6. Content creator Edith Kinuthia captures the good moments 7. Brick game fans /MOSES MWANGI