

Attendee Brief – LeadersWalk @ GMA Individual Semi-Finals

Purpose of the LeadersWalk

The LeadersWalk is designed to create meaningful dialogue between decision-makers and emerging leaders. It provides you, as an attendee, with the opportunity to:

- Share your perspectives and lived experiences.
 - Build cross-industry networks and new connections.
 - Engage in authentic conversations that raise visibility and spark collaboration.

Your Role as an Attendee (Hosts, please note you will follow the brief you have – this is for your information only)

Unlike traditional events, this format is interactive. Your role is not just to listen but to actively contribute.

- Engage fully: Participate in conversations at your table by asking questions, sharing your own insights, and listening actively to others.
 - Be curious: Use this as a chance to learn from leaders across industries and explore diverse viewpoints.
 - Contribute to dialogue: The value lies in open discussion, not in lengthy introductions or formal speeches.

What to Expect on the Evening

1. Opening & Welcome
2. Dinner
3. Keynote – Mr Theo Sibiya, Partner & Managing Director, Africa at Kearney
4. Awards Presentation
5. Break (15 minutes)
6. Table Discussions (45 minutes) – Your chance to engage in conversation.
7. Closing

How to Prepare

- Come ready to connect. Your presence is valued—be open, inclusive, and respectful in discussion.
- Ask questions. Draw on the experience of table hosts and fellow attendees.
- Share briefly. Contribute your perspective concisely so that everyone has the chance to speak.
- Stay purposeful. Keep your inputs aligned to leadership, gender mainstreaming, resilience, and personal growth.

The LeadersWalk works best when everyone contributes. Use this time to connect, learn, and inspire
